

INTERIOR JOURNAL

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1874.

A black cross X after your name on the margin of this paper, signifies that the time for which you subscribed has expired, and that you are requested to renew your subscription. A red cross indicates that your subscription remains unpaid, and you are politely reminded to pay it.

AUGUST ELECTION-1874.

For Circuit Judge.
We are authorized to announce M. H. OWSELY, of Louisville, a candidate for Circuit Judge of this, the 3rd Judicial District, at the next August election, subject to the will of the Democratic party.

For Commonwealth's Attorney.
We are authorized to announce J. O. WATKINS, of Louisville, a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney of this, the 3rd Judicial District, at the next August election, subject to the will of the Democratic party.

For County Judge.
We are authorized to announce HANSFORD, a candidate for Judge of the Lincoln County Court, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce A. C. OWEN, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce W. H. MILLER, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce STEPHEN BURCH, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

For County Clerk.
We are authorized to announce J. E. CANNON, a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the will of the Democratic party of Lincoln County.

HONE JOTTINGS.

Hops, or no hops?

Let us assume the position of a strict hog-ordnance.

The late frosts were very disastrous to fruit in several parts of the State.

All patriotic citizens of Caucasian descent should vote for a hog-ordnance to-morrow.

A number of Messrs of Stanford returned the funeral of Mr. Jno. Flack, at Crab Orchard last Sunday.

Mr. Ben. Evans, who was wounded a few days since, has recovered and returned to his home in Garrard.

By the last of next week the Stanford bakery will have been completed, and our citizens may luxuriate in bakers' bread.

On our first page will be found the call of the Executive Committee for a primary election, and the rules governing it.

A handsome four-wheeled baby carriage, good as new, and will be sold cheap for cash. Call at Hayden's furniture rooms.

In the Spring time a young man's fancy lightly turns to love, and a young woman's desire to spring bonnets and new clothes.

Dr. P. W. Logan, of Stanford, has been appointed one of the medical examiners for this district. He received his commission a few days since.

Reuben C. Harris returned from the fair South on Monday last, and brings back the old, old story of dull sales. However, he disposed of his stock without loss.

We spent last Sunday in Crab Orchard, and dined at the old Hardin House, kept by Stewart Myers, and found it very comfortable. Very few young men except Stewart in the catering line.

The proprietors of Crab Orchard Springs are improving the grounds and building a handsome fountain at the spring near the principal building at a cost of two thousand dollars.

A large number of the Lancaster merchants have adopted the strictly cash system, and are said to be doing well. This is precisely what all merchants and mechanics and professional men should do.

Mr. A. C. Robinson, of this county, has two ewes which gave birth this Spring to seven lambs, one of them had four. Last year the same ewes gave birth to five. Certainly they are prolific, and the stock should be carefully bred from.

There was snow upon the ground on last Wednesday morning, and snow fell lightly during a part of the day. The peach blossoms were filled with ice, and a great deal of fruit killed.

A fellow by the name of Davenport has been hounding some of our citizens in the North-east part of the county, professing to cure certain impediments in speech. He left the county, however, with a "borrowed" horse.

Persons who took advantage of the warm days of March and planted their beans and other tender vegetables, will find that it would have been better to wait until the middle of this month. But little, if anything, is gained by planting too early.

The Patrons of Husbandry will meet here on the 15th inst., for the purpose of organizing a County Council. These organizations are very essential to harmonious and united action and should be instituted in every county where a number of Grangers exist.

The great International Circus, and Menagerie is on a rampage in Kentucky, and give us the go-by. It will exhibit in Danville, April 10th, and Lancaster the 20th. We are grieved that it should ignore our village, for we so much desire to see the animals.

Our countryman, Mr. Chris. Engleman, has opened the salubrious and safe traffic in Lincoln, having sold recently to an Eastern gentleman, two knots from two walnut trees on his place for $15. The walnut-timber trade with England is a considerable item of revenue to this county.

The "boss-sucker" of this section will be grieved to learn that a fire in Detroit, Mich., last week, destroyed all the paraphernalia of the Peak Family Bell-Ringers—including the false teeth of Miss Fannie, the satin costume of Master Dot and the paste-jewelry of the peacock model, Lavalee.

The congregational meetings of the Christian Church, at this place, are growing immensely interesting to those who delight in investigating the New Testament. We are requested to notify the membership that the 7th chapter of Romans will be under consideration on Sunday morning, and a full meeting is desired.

Several citizens of town have joined in a communication, elsewhere, suggesting a ticket for Town Trustees to be elected to-morrow. The selection is a good one. We presume it would be asking too much of the gentlemen composing the present Board to request them to serve another year, but we cannot hope to choose a better Board.

The Great International Circus, Funny Show, etc., will pass by our county, and give exhibitions in all the small towns, and at all cross-roads around our section of the State.

Our advice to keep your horses and quarters for the real show, which will visit all the important points, including Stanford, Hustville, Wayneburg and Crab Orchard, within a few weeks.

Many of our readers will be interested in the statement published last Wednesday in the Louisville dailies of the drawing which came off at Louisville on last Tuesday. We congratulate the lucky ticket-holders in this section (if there be any), but have no sympathy for the unfortunate. It is a "risky" business at best, and no doubt many disappointed ticket-holders will take a vote never to risk their "luck" again. "Old Lady" is undoubtedly a game of chance, but the lottery game is one of chance, and a "thin chance" at that.

The State Geologist has opened a correspondence with our townsmen, John Bright, who, by-the-way, is one of the most competent men he could have selected in the county as his adviser in reference to the topography, etc., of our county. Mr. Bright will visit, soon several points of interest in the West End, including several Indian mounds; and will investigate the grounds on the farm of Doctor Fowler, where a few years ago some Indian relics were unearthed by the uprooting of a large forest tree, supposed to be an hundred years old. We hope Mr. Bright will be vigilant in his investigations, and leave nothing untold, so that the Geologist may be induced to give our county a personal visit.

As still as it has been kept, the hog-law advocates will marshal their forces in solid phalanx to-morrow, and will, beyond doubt, succeed in voting a hog-law by an overwhelming majority thus relieving the town of the intolerable porcine nuisance, which has afflicted us for years. Many who have voted against a hog-law heretofore, through sympathy for a few men, have repented the error of

THEIR VOTE—INASMUCH AS WHILE ONE POOR MAN WAS SUFFERING BY ALLOWING HIS LARGEST LIBERTY, A CHAIN WAS INJURED BY THE DEPENDENCY OF THE THIEVING SWINE, AND LEAVING THEIR GARDENS DEMOLISHED IN A SINGLE NIGHT. COMMON DECENCY, IT SEEMS TO US, DEMANDS THAT WE KEEP FROM RUNNING LOOSE ABOUT THE TOWN.

Lancaster has at last concluded to listen to the voice of wisdom, and heed the warnings of experience. Four hundred dollars have been raised by private subscription for the purpose of purchasing fire-extinguishers and a company is to be organized and thoroughly drilled in the art of fire-fighting. Other towns that are at the mercy of the destroying element should follow the example of our neighboring little city. It may not have occurred to others, but we have noticed that the last ten years Lancaster never underwent a new enterprise, or a step forward, but it succeeds in its accomplishment. Alas! The new Courthouse, the new jail, the telegraph line, the Central News, the Plaining Mills, the Slating Rink, the Red Stars, the magnificent Town Hall, etc.

The above was in type before we heard of the fire.

On Friday afternoon last the spirit of Mrs. ALICE MARTIN YANCK took its flight for a better and purer world. Less than two years since she was married to Mr. H. C. Yanck, a young man of excellence, with whom she had lived happily, and to whom she was greatly devoted. She left behind a sweet little infant only two days old, who will never know the tender love of a mother. Mrs. Yanck became a member of the Christian Church at the age of thirteen, and was always consistent and earnest in her profession, loving to visit the house of God and engage in worship. The night before her death she called her husband to her bedside and told him to kiss her, knowing the world soon leave him on earth, to enter into that blessed rest which refresheth for all who love the Saviour. She told her friends that she was not afraid of death, and that her only regret was in leaving her beloved husband and helpless babe in this world of sin and strife, and for whom she had hoped to live. During her illness she was always cheerful to her friends, and was especially grateful to the many kind friends who ministered to her wants, and although her suffering was intense, no murmur escaped her lips, as she felt sure of a Saviour's love and tender mercy.

Our deceased friend was a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

We would most respectfully invite the attention of our commission to the importance of having a County Teachers' Association.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

By Our Special Correspondents.

TURNERSVILLE.

At your request, I write you a few lines, and thus forming one of your reportorial corps. I wish to be strictly a private; to follow your request, that is, to give you news items, would require too much of your valuable space, hence a synopsis.....Gen. Fox says that they call this Turnersville, now, because they turn off here to go to the tunnel.....Our clever young friends, Van Arsdel & Peyton, have just returned from Louisville, with a well selected stock of dry goods and groceries, which they are handling out to anybody and everybody for nothing—but the money.....Williams Lodge, I. O. G. T., meets at the Academy every other Wednesday night.....We are not well posted in that line, but it is generally admitted by the knowing ones that the prettiest girl in the neighborhood is the best looking one.....For some days past the weather has been very cool, we had "Snow" last Friday, and on Saturday morning.....Cupid, has already sent his jolly-tipped darts into many susceptible hearts in this vicinity, and if Miss "They Say" is reliable, Hy-men will, in a few days, with her lovely wing over a fair damsel near here and take her up to a new home—with her name changed.....What looks like farmers are behind with their work.....Boys whose inclinations are pictorial are agitating the finny tribe. We sent the other night and caught a cold.....Rev. Jos. Hopper, of Doreville, that leading Sunday School man, is expected to be here on the 22nd Sunday in April, to assist in organizing the Sunday School at this place. Let everybody turn out that day and build up a Sunday School at this place that will reflect honor upon the good people of this vicinity.....Mr. Editor, our efficient county school commissioner means to exclude arithmetic from our common schools? He has made an admirable list of textbooks, but failed to say anything to mention the book from which the little boys are to learn that everlasting multiplication table. While this subject, we might ask the question: Why do our counties adjoining this, have monthly meetings of teachers, and we have none? It appears to us that these meetings are decidedly advantageous to both teachers and the neighborhood in which they are held. The time for the common schools to open will soon be here. We would most respectfully invite the attention of our commission to the importance of having a County Teachers' Association.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

RECEIVED.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds, for several years pastor of the Methodist Church of Stanford, died on the 10th inst. of a long illness, and was buried on the 12th inst. in the cemetery at Stanford. The young lady, his daughter, who is now in the city, is a most lovely woman, and greatly endeared herself to all who knew her. All that medical science could suggest was brought to bear for her relief, but the Master called, and she was taken to His home on high. To the children family, husband and little babe especially, we pour out our heart's holiest sympathies, and commit them to the tender care of the Great Shepherd, knowing that He will guide them in paths of righteousness.

When spiritualism first made its appearance in the small village of _____, Ohio, Deacon Isaac, a wealthy man, who had been by the church for nearly three score years, was exceedingly bitter against all believers in the "devil's work." As he called it, and denounced spiritualists and spiritualism in no very gentle language. Imagine the Deacon's anger when, when six months afterward he found himself appointed to the State and local affairs. Before adjournment the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That we have just cause for congratulation, and we do congratulate, our brethren throughout the State upon the progress and prosperity of our order in Kentucky.
2. That this wonderful progress throughout our beloved State, embracing in its folds the great bulk of the agriculturists old, dark, silky, straight, and curled for the first time, by the use of the "Merveille" treatment. The hair was treated in just a 30-day old, and the hair was treated in just a 30-day

NO. 3.—DRENNON.
 No. 1, middle style, by old Drennon, dam Grey Ewe. Brown, straight, long, and well; fine style, and goes all the fashionable gay.

TERMS.—Broom, $20, at the time of service.
 Mordant, $10. The more you pay to find Drennon, $12.50 to insure a living color.
 More prices on application.

W. F. STURGEON.—$2 per month. Special cash, and no responsibility. Address
 Address.

HILTON & CAMPBELL.

Bloodwood, W. C.; D Edmiston, P. W. C. T. B F Pheligo, L. D.

FATHERS OF HUSBANDRY.

Singled Men—Meets at ——— Hall every Saturday afternoon, at —o'clock. Jas A Harris, M R R Gentry, Chas J Myers Le S Van Hooker, S. S. C. G. M. Roberts, Jr. A. S. S. Murphy, Treas; John Bright, Sec'y; Sam Baughman, G. K.

Huntsville—Meets at Masonic Hall every Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Messrs Lucas, McFarb Cooper, O. G. Helm, L. M. Yocell, Seels S Carpenter, A. S.; J. Robt. McFarb, Treas; J. E. Smith, Sec'y.

N. B.—If you know any one who needs Optics in their present frame send a "marked copy" of this paper to

SHIMMER AND NEW SOCIETY.
 I have through life been fortunate the best kind of trophies, and through his clan the thoroughbred horse and the best of hunting, and the best of the best of his admirers grows there is nothing to prevent him from being a young soldier in Kentucky, or anywhere else, where nature would happily lend a hand to his efforts.

MR. MARY continued on reasonable terms.

J. N. DAVIS,
 Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue at Stanford, Ky., has been appointed Special Agent in Charge of the Stamp of the United States, prior to May 1, 1875, and is now in the city of Stanford, Ky.

THE FEDERAL REVENUE, U. S. CO., N. Y.